As part of the FY 2003 budget, the Administration is requesting a consolidation and financial realignment for the Executive Office of the President (EOP). The initiative would consolidate the twelve annual salaries and expenses accounts for the EOP agencies and fund them with a single appropriation. It would consolidate the resources for common acquisition-related goods and services into the EOP's Office of Administration (OA).

This proposal would give the President maximum flexibility in allocating resources and staff in support of his office and is intended to: permit a more rapid response to changing needs and priorities; allow the President to address emergent national needs; produce greater economies of scale and other efficiencies in procuring goods and services; and enhance accountability for performance.

This initiative would enable the President to effectively manage and align EOP resources consistent with decision making in an efficient and straightforward manner, while enhancing the accuracy of the financial systems and significantly reducing the administrative volume and cost of processing transactions through the United States Treasury.

This account, with estimated FY 2003 costs, includes: Compensation of the President and the White House Office (including Homeland Security ($85.0 million), the Executive Residence at the White House ($12.2 million), White House Repair and Restoration ($1.2 million), Special Assistance to the President and Official Residence of the Vice-President ($4.4 million), Council of Economic Advisors ($4.4 million), Council on Environmental Quality and Office of Environmental Quality ($3.0 million), Office of Policy Development ($4.2 million), National Security Council (including the new Counterterrorism Directorate ($9.5 million), Office of Administration ($70.1 million), Armstrong Resolution Account ($0), Office of Management and Budget ($70.8 million), Office of National Drug Control Policy ($25.5 million), Office of Science and Technology Policy ($5.4 million), and the Office of the United States Trade Representative ($32.3 million).
